

The Board of Trustees of the Stevens Institute of Technology

Proclamation of March 10, 2010
Unanimously approved April 6, 2010

Tenure of Dr. Harold J. Raveché as President

Dr. Raveché, who joined the Stevens Institute of Technology as the sixth president in 1988, has provided extraordinary service to all facets of the Institute. This proclamation serves as an acknowledgement by the Board of Trustees of the Stevens Institute of Technology that it recognizes the contributions that Dr. Raveché has made to Stevens Institute of Technology.

WHEREAS, under Dr. Raveché's leadership, the Institute has had two successful fund raising campaigns, increased alumni participation in giving and support and received gifts, funds, contracts and grants to the University for scholarship, research, facility improvements and academic expansion, and

WHEREAS, under Dr. Raveché's leadership, there has been has been unprecedented growth in enrollment size and quality such that student enrollment has reached 5,900 undergraduate and graduate students with improved geographic, gender, diversity and qualitative characteristics, and

WHEREAS, under Dr. Raveché's leadership, the Institute has developed a richer and stronger academic community, including a nationally recognized research component, a larger and more qualified faculty, an enhanced and newly created curricula and a culture of entrepreneurship and innovation in all aspects of academic life, and

WHEREAS, under Dr. Raveché's leadership, the student life aspects of the University were enhanced by the development of a strong student-athlete experience, blending the performing arts in both student and academic life and enhancing the overall student experience with improved academic, recreational, dining and residential facilities, and

WHEREAS, under Dr. Raveché's leadership, the Institute has developed a global presence through international partners in academia and government, launched an award-winning WebCampus resulting in double-digit growth and worldwide recognition, and fostered Technogenesis®, the university-wide learning environment that cultivates and encourages innovation and is a model for other institutes of higher learning, and

WHEREAS Dr. Raveche's twenty two year presidency has been one of total commitment, tireless energy and integrity, and

WHEREAS, Dr. Raveché's numerous accomplishments extend beyond those outlined in this proclamation;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that The Board of Trustees of the Stevens Institute of Technology recognizes his exemplary service and his proven ability to positively contribute to all aspects of our community such that Stevens is now a more robust and successful University.